

Jill Niland – Director

Jill is a past president of LPAC.

She is active in bird and wildlife conservation, and is president of the Chicago Ornithological Society. An avid birder, she spends her free time birding in Lincoln Park at Montrose Point and Jarvis sanctuaries, and bicycling throughout the park with her school age son.

Jill has lived in Chicago since 1974. She holds a bachelor's degree from Cornell University and a Masters in Public Health from the University of Illinois, and is a partner in an occupational safety and health consulting firm.
