

Patricia A Yeray (Director)

Patricia is a retired flight attendant who has lived in Chicago on-and-off for over four decades between relocations scattered among Seattle, Honolulu, New York, Vermilion, Ohio, and Santiago, Chile.

Over the years she has held elected and appointed positions, locally and nationally, in the service of the Association of Flight Attendants. She also has served on the House Rules committee of her Condominium Association.

Patricia is a Board Member/Treasurer of Protect Our Parks (POP) and a member of the 43rd Ward Democratic Committee Steering Council.